Haystack Volunteers Wanted

It's not too late to join the woodworking volunteers who go to Haystack Mountain School of Crafts each year to help get the wood studio in shape for the summer season. We do lots of sharpening, tool maintenance and repairs, and a variety of special projects. This year we will be there May 15 and 16 for our 25th consecutive year supporting Haystack. So far we have Chris Becksvoort, Andy Abello, Ned Merrick, Michael Hetzel, Alan Bradstreet, and likely a couple others. And bring along your guitar, ukulele, or kazoo for Monday night self-inflicted entertainment by the fire in the dining hall. Call Alan for details at 688-4728 or alanbrad@maine.rr.com
